

The Sundog Cafe Jazz Night

June 30, 2017 by Jody Aston, Editor and Publisher

The Sundog Caf   was packed last week for the final performance of a jazz trio, Cathy on percussion and Titou on piano, and their friend, Damien, on trumpet. If you were one who enjoyed their music and sad to see them go - no worries! Their boats are still on the rio, SV Lila and SV Sea Lion, respectively, and they will return in September.

Cathy and Titou have been married for 35 years and traveling on their boat for 8 years. They first met Damien and played together in Grenada and Trinidad. Something may have been lost in the French-English translation (not to mention effects of Sundog's special mango daiquiris on the notetaker/reporter), but Cathy had a funny story...something about when they were in Roatan, Titou transported his piano on a "tricycle," which is still on their boat! We'll have to get a more sober story in September!

  