

Ram Marina Fundraiser for Cayo Quemado Education

December 2, 1017by Kathi Wright, Volunteer Coordinator andKelli Doll, Founder of the Community Tuition Grant Program

On Saturday, December 9th, RAM Marina will be holding their annual celebrations of the 2nd anniversary of Rio Dulceâ€™s only yacht painting booth and the 4th anniversary of the West Marine Pro products store.Â The day of the event everything in the marine products store will be 15% off and you will also receive 50% off selected clothing and shoes!Â So come on out and celebrate with the Rio Dulce community and enjoy the food, beverages, music and savings â€” all compliments of RAM Marina. UPDATE! See Ram's ad for a special deal below! Click "Read more..."

And once again, RAM Marina has generously offered this opportunity to the rural students of nearby village Cayo Quemado to take part in their celebration and raise funds for their Community Tuition Grant Program.Â Since 2011, this Program has provided financial assistance to disadvantaged families, allowing their children to attend middle school, high school and New for the 2018 school year -- financial assistance to attend college. Â Keep in mind, ALL proceeds from the silent auction and raffle go towards these students' education. We hope you join us in what will surely be a great day and meet the students of Cayo Quemado who will be working the event and truly appreciate your support!!!

Looking for a good Christmas Gift?? Come to RAM Marina the 9th of December, and pick from our large selection of Luci Lights, with the 20% discount.

Â