

Servamar expands office, services

Raul Morales Veliz of Naviera Servamar in Livingston announces expanded staff and office facilities.

Â In addition to his nephew Gerson helping facilitate boaters' paperwork and passport extensions, Sandra Yatz Mejia has now joined the office staff as secretary in an adjoining office.

Raul has also purchased a backup generator to provide power to the office in case of power failures.

A former customs officer for the Guatemalan government, Raul is well acquainted with all paperwork needed by visiting cruisers as well as permanent residents here.

To find Servamar, look up from the main dock area, just behind and to the left of La Buga Mama.Â Itâ€™s a two story yellow building and his office is on the second floor.Â Â Internet service and cold drinks are available while you wait for him to do all the legwork.Â Â He can handle paperwork to clear in and out as well as passport extensions, 3 and 12 month boat extensions and license and registration for boats as well as dinghies.Â His phone numbers are office: 7947-0888 and cell: 5510-9104 and his email address is navieraservamar@gmail.com or remo_rale@yahoo.com.mx .
